

Shot Down

Imagine you are a pilot, flying your plane over occupied France. You might be shot down any minute....

What three things would you carry on you to help you to survive if you were shot down?

Remember:

- You will need to parachute out – it cannot be anything too bulky
- The things you are carrying must be helpful to your survival
- You may be caught – how would you be able to explain these items without people realising who you are?
